

CAMP COUNTIES: MAC'S SUMMER WEBINAR SERIES

With in-person gatherings still discouraged, but the need to share information and best practices never more acute, MAC has responded with a new educational series for summer 2020: Camp Counties.

Replacing our traditional in-person Regional Summits, the webinars of Camp Counties are free to all employees of MAC member counties and designed to provide practical information and tips that can be put to immediate use. All webinars will start at 11 a.m. on their scheduled dates. The webinars will be recorded for post-event, on-demand viewing on our website.

JUNE 24: USING UNIFORM FEES TO BOOST APPEALS IN CRIMINAL CASES

Staffers from the State Appellate Defender Office and the Michigan Assigned Appellate Counsel System (MAACS) will update MAC members on the progress of the optional, innovative regional assignment process that encourages the trial courts' voluntary adoption of a uniform attorney fee policy with reasonable hourly rates. In response to a low attorney participation for criminal appeals, the model enhances recruitment and retention, attorney caseloads and the quality of representation. Forty-seven of 56 circuit courts have moved to the MACCS system surveys, revealing overwhelming approval by judges and court staff in participating courts.

Speakers: Jonathan Sacks, State Appellate Defender Office, and Brad Hall, Michigan Appellate Assigned Counsel System

JULY 15: BASIC STEPS FOR COUNTIES TO ENHANCE ELECTION CYBERSECURITY

A 2018 report by the cybersecurity firm McAfee listed Michigan as one of the states where few counties have taken a basic security precaution for election purposes: adoption of the .gov website domain.

As opposed to other domains such as .com or .org, the .gov domain is controlled by the federal government and has strict rules about qualifying for its use.

This webinar will detail why counties should migrate to a .gov domain and what other common-sense measures they can take to protect their election processes and general information online.

Speaker: Rita Reynolds, National Association of Counties
